Gospel Meeting - cont.

respect to God. We must live and serve Him with an understanding of what it will cost, and an attitude of conformity to His will (Lk.14:25—35). Many will lose their eternal life because they were willing to serve mammon rather than God. If we choose not to seek first "the kingdom of God, and his righteousness" (Matt.6:33), we won't be going to heaven!

Love God
Love Your Children

When Jesus was asked what was the greatest commandment (Matt.22:37) his reply was, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind". Our number one priority is to love God This is an active love that moves us to do the will of God. Jesus stated in John 14:15, "If you love me, keep my commandments". Parents, love God and love your children. Let them see by our examples that God is to be put first and that going to heaven is our number one goal. - Steve Reeves

Gospel Meeting Schedule

April 11-14, 2019

Thursday: "What Has the Lord Spoken?" (7 pm)

Friday: "Do You Really Want to Know What the Lord Has Spoken (7 pm)

Saturday: "When People Don't Like What the Lord Has Spoken" (7 pm)

Sunday: "Is Not My Word Like A Fire?" (9:30 am)

THE WARFIELD BULLETIN

March 31, 2019

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.
- 2 Corinthians 10:3-4 -

Feed My Squirrels

The other day, as my wife was leaving the house, she shouted from the car, "feed my squirrels"! Arrrgh, I thought. God feeds them every day, they aren't going to starve! Still, I took two ears of dried corn and placed them on two feeders and went about my work.

Her request got me to thinking about that phrase. It was similar to Jesus' request of Peter to, "feed my sheep" (John 21:17).

Of course, Peter knew that the Lord was speaking of feeding fellow Christians with the spiritual food of His words. In John 6:51 Jesus said, "I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever...," Again He said, "the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life" (6:63).

When Peter, who was an elder in the Lord's church, exhorted fellow elders to "feed the flock", he was speaking of their need to feed Christians with the Word. Paul exhorted preachers to feed their audience with the Word (2 Tim. 4:2).

As a Christian, I should appreciate the opportunities to feed my soul. When I read my Bible at home, I feed my soul. When I listen to the Gospel message, study in bible classes, or work on my lessons at home, I'm feeding my soul with words of life.

The writer of Proverbs wisely requested, "Remove far from me falsehood and lies; Give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with the food that is needful for me" (30:8). – Steve Reeves

Caption: "I don't believe my Daddy will be in heaven... He couldn't leave the store."

He Couldn't Leave the Store

Sometimes little children perceive things a bit more accurately than what we think they do. The little boy in the cartoon had heard his father use the excuse, "I can't leave the store" as his reason for not having time to go to worship or serve the Lord. The son figured that the store was so important to his father, that he would not be able to leave it even to go to heaven. And, you know, he probably was right!

What Happened?

The father made sure that little junior was in Bible class on Sunday and maybe Wednesdays as well. But because he "could not leave the store", or "stayed up late last night", or what ever the excuse, he didn't take time to attend services or take time to be holy.

Monkey See, Monkey Do

We teach by our example as well as with our mouths. Many fathers have not set their priorities in